

Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure
Legislative Amendments 1979-2023

ORCP 13

Compiled by Connor Grosshanten

Lewis & Clark Law School | Oregon Council on Court Procedures

Rule 13 – Kinds of Pleadings Allowed; Former Pleadings Abolished

---

§	Latest Amendment
A	Unamended
B	Or. Laws 1979 c.284 § 11
C	Unamended

Or. Laws 1979 c.284 § 11

Amends Rule 13(B)

- A. [Unamended]
- B. Pleadings allowed. There shall be a complaint and an answer. An answer may include a counterclaim against a plaintiff, including a party joined under Rule 22 D., and a cross-claim against a defendant, including a party joined under Rule 22 D. A pleading against any person joined under Rule 22 C. is a third party complaint. There shall be an answer to a cross-claim and a third party complaint. There shall be a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such and a reply to assert any affirmative allegations in avoidance of any defenses asserted in an answer. There shall be no other pleading unless the court orders otherwise.
- C. [Unamended]

---

H.B. 3131

Or. Laws 1979 c.284 § 11

House Introduction

5/11/79

A-Engrossed Bill

5/25/79 – Passed unamended in House

6/6/79 – Passed with amendments in Senate (per Justice Committee recommendation)

6/8/79 – House concurred with Senate amendments and repassed bill

Governor signed Enrolled Bill

6/26/79