SERVICE AND FILING OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS RULE 9

A Service; when required. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, every order; every pleading subsequent to the original complaint; every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte; and every written request, notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar document shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 7.

10 B Service; how made. Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be 11 made upon a party, and that party is represented by an attorney, the service shall be made upon 12 the attorney unless otherwise ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party 13 shall be made by delivering a copy to such attorney or party, by mailing it to such attorney's or 14 party's last known address or, if the party is represented by an attorney, by telephonic facsimile 15 communication device or e-mail as provided in sections F or G of this rule. Delivery of a copy 16 within this rule means: handing it to the person to be served; or leaving it at such person's office 17 with such person's clerk or person apparently in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, 18 leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has 19 no office, leaving it at such person's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person 20 over 14 years of age then residing therein. A party who has appeared without providing an 21 appropriate address for service may be served by filing a copy of the pleading or other 22 documents with the court. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. Service of any notice or 23 other document to bring a party into contempt may only be upon such party personally.

C Filing; proof of service. Except as provided by section D of this rule, all papers required to be served upon a party by section A of this rule shall be filed with the court within a reasonable time after service. Except as otherwise provided in Rule 7 and Rule 8, proof of 1 service of all papers required or permitted to be served may be by written acknowledgment of 2 service, by affidavit or declaration of the person making service, or by certificate of an attorney. 3 Such proof of service may be made upon the papers served or as a separate document attached to 4 the papers. Where service is made by telephonic facsimile communication device or e-mail, 5 proof of service shall be made by affidavit or declaration of the person making service, or by certificate of an attorney or sheriff. Attached to such affidavit, declaration, or certificate shall be the printed confirmation of receipt of the message generated by the transmitting machine, if facsimile communication is used. If service is made by e-mail under section G of this rule, the person making service must certify that he or she received confirmation that the message was received, either by return e-mail, automatically generated message, telephonic facsimile, or orally.

D When filing not required. Notices of deposition, requests made pursuant to Rule 43, and answers and responses thereto shall not be filed with the court. This rule shall not preclude their use as exhibits or as evidence on a motion or at trial. Offers of compromise made

pursuant to Rule 54 E shall not be filed with the court except as provided in Rule 54 E(3).

E Filing with the court defined. The filing of pleadings and other documents with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the court or the person exercising the duties of that office. The clerk or the person exercising the duties of that office shall endorse upon such pleading or document the time of day, the day of the month, the month, and the year. The clerk or person exercising the duties of that office is not required to receive for filing any document unless the name of the court, the title of the cause and the document, the names of the parties, and the attorney for the party requesting filing, if there be one, are legibly endorsed on the front of the document, nor unless the contents thereof are legible.

F Service by telephonic facsimile communication device. Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party, and that party is represented by an attorney, the service may be made upon the attorney by means of a telephonic facsimile communication device if the attorney maintains such a device at the attorney's office and the device is operating at the time service is made. Service in this manner shall be equivalent to service by mail for purposes of Rule 10 C.

G Service by e-mail. Service by e-mail is prohibited unless attorneys agree in writing to e-mail service. This agreement must provide the names and e-mail addresses of all attorneys and the attorneys' designees, if any, to be served. Any attorney may withdraw his or her agreement at any time, upon proper notice via e-mail and any one of the other methods authorized by this rule. Service is effective under this method when the sender has received confirmation that the attachment has been received by the designated recipient. Confirmation of receipt does not include an automatically generated message that the recipient is out of the office or otherwise unavailable.

DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS; HOW PRESENTED; BY PLEADING OR MOTION; MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS RULE 21

4 A How presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a 5 complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim or third party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading 6 thereto, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion to dismiss: 7 (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) that there is 8 another action pending between the same parties for the same cause, (4) that plaintiff has not the legal 9 capacity to sue, (5) insufficiency of summons or process or insufficiency of service of summons or 10 process, (6) that the party asserting the claim is not the real party in interest, (7) failure to join a party 11 under Rule 29, (8) failure to state ultimate facts sufficient to constitute a claim, and (9) that the pleading 12 shows that the action has not been commenced within the time limited by statute. A motion to dismiss 13 making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. The 14 grounds upon which any of the enumerated defenses are based shall be stated specifically and with 15 particularity in the responsive pleading or motion. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with 16 one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If, on a motion to dismiss 17 asserting defenses (1) through (7), the facts constituting such defenses do not appear on the face of the 18 pleading and matters outside the pleading, including affidavits, declarations and other evidence, are 19 presented to the court, all parties shall be given a reasonable opportunity to present affidavits, declarations 20 and other evidence, and the court may determine the existence or nonexistence of the facts supporting 21 such defense or may defer such determination until further discovery or until trial on the merits. If the 22 court grants a motion to dismiss, the court may enter judgment in favor of the moving party or grant leave 23 to file an amended complaint. If the court grants the motion to dismiss on the basis of defense (3), the 24 court may enter judgment in favor of the moving party, stay the proceeding, or defer entry of judgment 25 [pursuant to subsection B(3) of Rule 54].

GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISCOVERY

RULE 36

A Discovery methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission.

7 B Scope of discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with 8 these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

B(1) In general. For all forms of discovery, parties may inquire regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things, and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

B(2) Insurance agreements or policies.

B(2)(a) A party, upon the request of an adverse party, shall disclose:

18 B(2)(a)(i) the existence and contents of any insurance agreement or policy under which a 19 person transacting insurance may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be 20 entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment[.];
21 and

B(2)(a)(ii) the existence of any coverage denial or reservation of rights, and identify the provisions in any insurance agreement or policy upon which such coverage denial or reservation of rights is based.

B(2)(b) The obligation to disclose under this subsection shall be performed as soon as practicable following the filing of the complaint and the request to disclose. The court may supervise the exercise of disclosure to the extent necessary to insure that it proceeds properly and expeditiously. However, the court may limit the extent of disclosure under this subsection as provided in section C of this rule.

B(2)(c) Information concerning the insurance agreement or policy is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this subsection, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement or policy.

B(2)(d) As used in this subsection, "disclose" means to afford the adverse party an opportunity to inspect or copy the insurance agreement or policy.

9 B(3) Trial preparation materials. Subject to the provisions of Rule 44, a party may 10 obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subsection B(1) 11 of this rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or 12 for that other party's representative (including an attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, 13 insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of 14 the materials in the preparation of such party's case and is unable without undue hardship to 15 obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such 16 materials when the required showing has been made, the court shall protect against disclosure of 17 the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other 18 representative of a party concerning the litigation.

19 A party may obtain, without the required showing, a statement concerning the action or 20 its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person who is not a party may 21 obtain, without the required showing, a statement concerning the action or its subject matter 22 previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person or party requesting the 23 statement may move for a court order. The provisions of Rule 46 A(4) apply to the award of 24 expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this subsection, a statement 25 previously made is (a) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the 26 person making it, or (b) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

3 C Court order limiting extent of disclosure. Upon motion by a party or by the person 4 from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is 5 pending may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, 6 embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: 7 (1) that the discovery not be had; (2) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and 8 conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (3) that the discovery may be had only 9 by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (4) that certain 10 matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (5) 11 that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court; (6) that 12 a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the court; (7) that a trade secret or 13 other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be 14 disclosed only in a designated way; (8) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents 15 or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court; or (9) that to 16 prevent hardship the party requesting discovery pay to the other party reasonable expenses 17 incurred in attending the deposition or otherwise responding to the request for discovery.

18 If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may, on such 19 terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The 20 provisions of Rule 46 A(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

PERSONS WHO MAY ADMINISTER OATHS FOR DEPOSITIONS; FOREIGN DEPOSITIONS RULE 38

A Within Oregon.

A(1) Within this state, depositions shall be preceded by an oath or affirmation administered to the deponent by an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of this state or by a person specially appointed by the court in which the action is pending. A person so appointed has the power to administer oaths for the purpose of the deposition.

A(2) For purposes of this rule, a deposition taken pursuant to Rule 39 C(7) is taken within this state if either the deponent or the person administering the oath is located in this state.

B Outside the state. Within another state, or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, or in a foreign country, depositions may be taken: (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States[,]; [or] (2) before a person appointed or commissioned by the court in which the action is pending, and such a person shall have the power by virtue of such person's appointment or commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony[,]; or (3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in (here name the state, territory, or country)." Evidence obtained in a foreign country in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for

1 depositions taken within the United States under these rules.

2	C Foreign depositions and subpoenas.
3	[C(1) Whenever any mandate, writ, or commission is issued out of any court of record in
4	any other state, territory, district, or foreign jurisdiction, or whenever upon notice or agreement
5	it is required to take the testimony of a witness or witnesses in this state, witnesses may be
6	compelled to appear and testify in the same manner and by the same process and proceeding as
7	may be employed for the purpose of taking testimony in proceedings pending in this state.
8	C(2) This section shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general
9	purposes to make uniform the laws of those states which have similar rules or statutes.]
10	C(1) Definitions. For the purpose of this rule:
11	C(1)(a) "Foreign subpoena" means a subpoena issued under authority of a court of
12	record of any state other than Oregon.
13	C(1)(b) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto
14	Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, a federally recognized Indian tribe, or any territory
15	or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.
16	C(2) Issuance of subpoena.
17	C(2)(a) To request issuance of a subpoena under this rule, a party or attorney shall
18	submit a foreign subpoena to a clerk of court in the county in which discovery is sought to 19	be conducted in this state.
20	C(2)(b) When a party or attorney submits a foreign subpoena to a clerk of court in
21	this state, the clerk, in accordance with that court's procedure and requirements, shall
22	assign a case number and promptly issue a subpoena for service upon the person to whom 23	the foreign subpoena is directed. If a party to an out-of-state proceeding retains an
24	attorney licensed to practice in this state, that attorney may assist the clerk in drafting the 25	subpoena.
26

1	C(2)(c) A subpoena under this subsection shall:
2	(i) conform to the requirements of these Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure, including
3	Rule 55, and conform substantially to the form provided in Rule 55 A but may otherwise
4	incorporate the terms used in the foreign subpoena as long as those terms conform to these 5	rules; and
6	(ii) contain or be accompanied by the names, addresses, and telephone numbers
7	of all counsel of record in the proceeding to which the subpoena relates and of any party
8	not represented by counsel.
9	C(3) Service of subpoena. A subpoena issued by a clerk of court
10	under subsection (2) of this rule shall be served in compliance with Rule 55.
11	C(4) Effects of request for subpoena. A request for issuance of a subpoena under
12	this rule does not constitute an appearance in the court. A request does allow the court to 13	impose sanctions for any action in connection with the subpoena that is a violation of 14	applicable law.
15	C(5) Motions. A motion to the court, or a response thereto, for a protective order or
16	to enforce, quash, or modify a subpoena issued by a clerk of court pursuant to this rule is 17	an appearance before the court and shall comply with the rules and statutes of this state.
18	The motion shall be submitted to the court in the county in which discovery is to be
19	conducted.
20	C(6) Uniformity of application and construction. In applying and construing this
21	rule, consideration shall be given to the need to promote the uniformity of the law with 22	respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS AND ENTRY UPON LAND FOR INSPECTION AND OTHER PURPOSES RULE 43

A Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request: (1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on behalf of the party making the request, to inspect 6 and copy[,] any designated documents (including electronically stored information, writings, 7 drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, [phono-records,] sound recordings, images, and other 8 data or data compilations from which information can be obtained[,] and translated, if 9 necessary, by the respondent through detection devices or software into reasonably usable 10 form)[,] or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain 11 matters within the scope of Rule 36 B and which are in the possession, custody, or control of the 12 party upon whom the request is served; or (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other 13 property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the 14 purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the 15 property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Rule 36 B.

B Procedure.

B(1) A party may serve a request on the plaintiff after commencement of the action and on any other party with or after service of the summons on that party. The request shall identify any items requested for inspection, copying, or related acts by individual item or by category described with reasonable particularity, designate any land or other property upon which entry is requested, and shall specify a reasonable place and manner for the inspection, copying, entry, and related acts.

B(2) A request shall not require a defendant to produce or allow inspection, copying, entry, or other related acts before the expiration of 45 days after service of summons, unless the court specifies a shorter time. Otherwise, within 30 days after service of a request in accordance with subsection B(1) of this rule, or such other time as the court may order or the parties may

1 | agree upon in writing, a party shall serve a response that includes the following:

B(2)(a) a statement that, except as specifically objected to, any requested item within the party's possession or custody is provided, or will be provided or made available within the time allowed and at the place and in the manner specified in the request, which items shall be organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in the request;

B(2)(b) as to any requested item not in the party's possession or custody, a statement that reasonable effort has been made to obtain it, unless specifically objected to, or that no such item is within the party's control;

9 B(2)(c) as to any land or other property, a statement that entry will be permitted as 10 requested unless specifically objected to; and 11

B(2)(d) any objection to a request or a part thereof and the reason for each objection.

B(3) Any objection not stated in accordance with subsection B(2) of this rule is waived.
Any objection to only a part of a request shall clearly state the part objected to. An objection does not relieve the requested party of the duty to comply with any request or part thereof not specifically objected to.

B(4) A party served in accordance with subsection B(1) of this rule is under a continuing duty during the pendency of the action to produce promptly any item responsive to the request and not objected to which comes into the party's possession, custody, or control.

B(5) A party who moves for an order under Rule 46 A(2) regarding any objection or other failure to respond or to permit inspection, copying, entry, or related acts as requested, shall do so within a reasonable time.

B Involuntary dismissal.

B(1) Failure to comply with rule or order. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of court, a defendant may move for a judgment of dismissal of an action or of any claim against such defendant.

B(2) Insufficiency of evidence. After the plaintiff in an action tried by the court without a jury has completed the presentation of plaintiff's evidence, the defendant, without waiving the right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a judgment of dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment of dismissal against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment of dismissal with prejudice against the plaintiff, the court shall make findings as provided in Rule 62.

13 B(3) Dismissal for want of prosecution; notice. Not less than 60 days prior to the first 14 regular motion day in each calendar year, unless the court has sent an earlier notice on its own 15 initiative, the clerk of the court shall mail notice to the attorneys of record in each pending case 16 in which no action has been taken for one year immediately prior to the mailing of such notice[,] 17 that a judgment of dismissal will be entered in each such case by the court for want of 18 prosecution[,] unless, on or before such first regular motion day, application, either oral or 19 written, is made to the court and good cause shown why it should be continued as a pending 20 case. If such application is not made or good cause shown, the court shall enter a judgment of 21 dismissal in each such case. Nothing contained in this subsection shall prevent the dismissal by 22 the court at any time[,] for want of prosecution of any action upon motion of any party thereto.

B(4) Effect of judgment of dismissal. Unless the court in its judgment of dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this section operates as an adjudication without prejudice.
 C Dismissal of counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party claim. The provisions of this 26 rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party claim.

D Costs of previously dismissed action.

D(1) If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of any unpaid judgment for costs and disbursements against plaintiff in the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

D(2) If a party who previously asserted a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party claim that was dismissed with prejudice subsequently [makes] files the same claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party claim against the same party, the court shall enter a judgment dismissing the claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third party claim and may enter a judgment requiring the payment of reasonable attorney fees incurred by the party in obtaining the dismissal.

E Offer to allow judgment; effect of acceptance or rejection.

E(1) Except as provided in ORS 17.065 through 17.085, [the] any party against whom a claim is asserted may, at any time up to [10] 14 days prior to trial, serve upon [the] any other party asserting the claim an offer to allow judgment to be [given] entered against the party making the offer for the sum, or the property, or to the effect therein specified. The offer shall not be filed with the court clerk or provided to any assigned judge, except as set forth in subsections E(2) and E(3) below.

E(2) If the party asserting the claim accepts the offer, the party asserting the claim or such party's attorney shall endorse such acceptance thereon[,] and file the same with the clerk before trial, and within [three] seven days from the time [it] the offer was served upon such party asserting the claim; and thereupon judgment shall be given accordingly[,] as a stipulated judgment. If the offer does not state that it includes costs and disbursements or attorney fees, the party asserting the claim shall submit any claim for costs and disbursements or attorney fees to the court as provided in Rule 68.

E(3) If the offer is not accepted and filed within the time prescribed, it shall be deemed withdrawn, and shall not be given in evidence at trial and may be filed with the court only after the case has been adjudicated on the merits and only if the party asserting the claim fails to obtain a judgment more favorable than the offer to allow judgment. In such a case, the party asserting the claim shall not recover costs, prevailing party fees, disbursements, or attorney fees incurred after the date of the offer, but the party against whom the claim was asserted shall recover of the party asserting the claim costs and disbursements, not including prevailing party fees, from the time of the service of the offer.

F Settlement conferences. A settlement conference may be ordered by the court at any time at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. Unless otherwise stipulated to by the parties, a judge other than the judge who will preside at trial shall conduct the settlement conference.

RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

RULE 71

A Clerical mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time on its own motion or on the motion of any party and after such notice to all parties who have appeared, if any, as the court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, a judgment may be corrected as provided in subsection (2) of section B of this rule.

B Mistakes; inadvertence; excusable neglect; newly discovered evidence, etc.

9 B(1) By motion. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a 10 party or such party's legal representative from a judgment for the following reasons: (a) mistake, 11 inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (b) newly discovered evidence which by due 12 diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 64 F; (c) 13 fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other 14 misconduct of an adverse party; (d) the judgment is void; or (e) the judgment has been satisfied, 15 released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or 16 otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective 17 application. A motion for reasons (a), (b), and (c) shall be accompanied by a pleading or motion 18 under Rule 21 A which contains an assertion of a claim or defense. The motion shall be made 19 within a reasonable time, and for reasons (a), (b), and (c) not more than one year after receipt of 20 notice by the moving party of the judgment. A copy of a motion filed within one year after the 21 entry of the judgment shall be served on all parties as provided in Rule 9 B, and all other motions 22 filed under this rule shall be served as provided in Rule 7. A motion under this section does not 23 affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation.

B(2) When appeal pending. A motion under sections A or B may be filed with and decided by the trial court during the time an appeal from a judgment is pending before an appellate court. The moving party shall serve a copy of the motion on the appellate court. The moving party shall file a copy of the trial court's order in the appellate court within seven days of the date of the trial court order. Any necessary modification of the appeal required by the court order shall be pursuant to rule of the appellate court.

C Relief from judgment by other means. This rule does not limit the inherent power of a court to modify a judgment within a reasonable time, or the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, or the power of a court to grant relief to a defendant under Rule 7 D(6)(f), or the power of a court to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court.

D Writs and bills abolished. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, bills of review, and bills in the nature of a bill of review are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion or by an independent action.
