AMENDMENT TO ORCP 36 C.(2)

C.(2). A party may disclose materials or other information covered by a protective order issued under subsection (1) above to a lawyer representing a client in a similar or related matter if the party first obtains a court order, after notice and an opportunity to be heard is afforded to the parties or persons for whose benefit the protective order has been issued. Disclosure shall be allowed by the court except for good cause shown by the parties or persons for whose benefit the protective order has been issued. No order shall be issued allowing disclosure unless the attorney receiving the material or information agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of the protective order.
