INTRODUCTION

The following amendments to the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure have been promulgated by the Council on Court Procedures for submission to the 2023 Legislative Assembly. Pursuant to ORS 1.735, they will become effective January 1, 2024, unless the Legislative Assembly by statute modifies the action of the Council.

The amended rules are set out with both the current and amended language. New language is shown in boldface with underlining, and language to be deleted is italicized and bracketed.

Please note that, during its December 10, 2022, meeting, the Council made changes to the previously published version of ORCP 55 for the following reason:

ORCP 55: The Council voted not to promulgate any of the changes that would have affected the operation or meaning of Rule 55 but, rather, only to adopt the two minor changes intended to insert a missing internal reference and correct a word choice to make it consistent with the Council's grammatical preference.

Note also that, at the December 10, 2022, meeting, the Council's published proposed new Rule 35, relating to vexatious litigants, received an affirmative vote of a majority of the Council but failed to achieve an affirmance by the required supermajority and, thus, is not among the promulgated rules.

The Council held the following public meetings during the 2021-2023 biennium, all of which were held virtually via the Zoom platform:

September 11, 2021 October 9, 2021 November 13, 2021 December 11, 2021 January 8, 2022 February 12, 2022 March 12, 2022 May 14, 2022 June 11, 2022 August 27, 2022 September 17, 2022 December 10, 2022

The Council expresses its appreciation to the bench and the bar for the comments and suggestions it has received.

PAGE 10 - ORCP 7, Promulgated 12/10/2022

1 D(4)(a)(i)(A) any residence address provided by that defendant at the scene of the 2 accident;

3 D(4)(a)(i)(B) the current residence address, if any, of that defendant shown in the driver records of the Department of Transportation; and

Sufficient service pursuant to this subparagraph 8 may be shown if the proof of service includes a true copy of the envelope in which each of the 9 certified, registered, or express mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A), D(4)(a)(i)(B), and 10 D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule was made showing that it was returned to sender as undeliverable or 11 that the defendant did not sign the receipt. For the purpose of computing any period of time 12 prescribed or allowed by these rules or by statute, service under this subparagraph shall be 13 complete on the latest date on which any of the mailings required by parts D(4)(a)(i)(A), 14 D(4)(a)(i)(B), and D(4)(a)(i)(C) of this rule is made. If the mailing required by part D(4)(a)(i)(C) of 15 this rule is omitted because the plaintiff did not know of any address other than those 16 specified in parts D(4)(a)(i)(A) and D(4)(a)(i)(B) of this rule, the proof of service shall so certify.

22 D(4)(b) Notification of change of address. 4

D(5) Service in foreign country. When service is to be effected [upon] on a party in a foreign country, it is also sufficient if service of true copies of the summons and the complaint is made in the manner prescribed by the law of the foreign country for service in that country in its courts of general jurisdiction, or as directed by the foreign authority in response to letters rogatory, or as directed by order of the court. However, in all cases service shall be reasonably calculated to give actual notice.

7 D(6) Court order for service by other method. When it appears that service is not 8 possible under any method otherwise specified in these rules or other rule or statute, then a 9 motion supported by affidavit or declaration may be filed to request a discretionary court 10 order to allow alternative service by any method or combination of methods that, under the 11 circumstances, is most reasonably calculated to apprise the defendant of the existence and 12 pendency of the action. If the court orders alternative service and the plaintiff knows or with 13 reasonable diligence can ascertain the defendant's current address, the plaintiff must mail true 14 copies of the summons and the complaint to the defendant at that address by first class mail 15 and any of the following: certified, registered, or express mail, return receipt requested. If the 16 plaintiff does not know, and with reasonable diligence cannot ascertain, the current address of 17 any defendant, the plaintiff must mail true copies of the summons and the complaint by the 18 methods specified above to the defendant at the defendant's last known address. If the 19 plaintiff does not know, and with reasonable diligence cannot ascertain, the defendant's 20 current and last known addresses, a mailing of copies of the summons and the complaint is not 21 required.

D(6)(a) Non-electronic alternative service. Non-electronic forms of alternative service may include, but are not limited to, publication of summons; mailing without publication to a specified post office address of the defendant by first class mail as well as either by certified, registered, or express mail with return receipt requested; or posting at specified locations. The court may specify a response time in accordance with subsection C(2) of this rule.

PAGE 12 - ORCP 7, Promulgated 12/10/2022

D(6)(a)(i) Alternative service by publication. In addition to the contents of a summons as described in section C of this rule, a published summons must also contain a summary statement of the object of the complaint and the demand for relief, and the notice required in subsection C(3) of this rule must state: "The motion or answer or reply must be given to the court clerk or administrator within 30 days of the date of first publication specified herein along with the required filing fee." The published summons must also contain the date of the first publication of the summons.

D(6)(a)(i)(A) Where published. An order for publication must direct publication to be made in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the action is commenced or, if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper to be designated as most likely to give notice to the person to be served. The summons must be published four times in successive calendar weeks. If the plaintiff knows of a specific location other than the county in which the action is commenced where publication might reasonably result in actual notice to the defendant, the plaintiff must so state in the affidavit or declaration required by paragraph D(6) of this rule, and the court may order publication in a comparable manner at that location in addition to, or in lieu of, publication in the county in which the action is commenced.

D(6)(a)(ii) Alternative service by posting. The court may order service by posting true copies of the summons and complaint at a designated location in the courthouse where the action is commenced and at any other location that the affidavit or declaration required by subsection D(6) of this rule indicates that the posting might reasonably result in actual notice to the defendant.

22 D(6)(b) Electronic alternative service. Electronic forms of alternative service may include, 23 but are not limited to: e-mail; text message; facsimile transmission as defined in Rule 9 F; or 24 posting to a social media account. The affidavit or declaration filed with a motion for electronic 25 alternative service must include: verification that diligent inquiry revealed that the defendant's 26 residence address, mailing address, and place of employment are unlikely to accomplish service; the reason that plaintiff believes the defendant has recently sent and received transmissions from the specific e-mail address or telephone or facsimile number, or maintains an active social media account on the specific platform the plaintiff asks to use; and facts that indicate the intended recipient is likely to personally receive the electronic transmission. The certificate of service must verify compliance with subparagraph D(6)(b)(i) and subparagraph D(6)(b)(ii) of this rule. An amended certificate of service must be filed if it later becomes evident that the intended recipient did not personally receive the electronic transmission.

D(6)(b)(i) Content of electronic transmissions. If the court allows service by a specific electronic method, the case name, case number, and name of the court in which the action is pending must be prominently positioned where it is most likely to be read first. For e-mail service, those details must appear in the subject line. For text message service, they must appear in the first line of the first text. For facsimile service, they must appear at the top of the first page. For posting to a social media account, they must appear in the top lines of the posting.

5 D(6)(b)(ii) Format of electronic transmissions. If the court allows alternative service by 6 an electronic method, the summons, complaint, and any other documents must be attached in 7 a file format that is capable of showing a true copy of the original document. When an 8 electronic method is incapable of transferring transmissions that exceed a certain size, the 9 plaintiff must not exceed those express size limitations. If the size of the attachments exceeds 1 be sent immediately after the initial transmission to complete service.

D(6)(c) Unknown heirs or persons. If service cannot be made by another method described in this section because defendants are unknown heirs or persons as described in Rule 20 I and J, the action will proceed against the unknown heirs or persons in the same manner as against named defendants served by publication and with like effect; and any unknown heirs or persons who have or claim any right, estate, lien, or interest in the property in controversy at the time of the commencement of the action, and who are served by publication, will be bound and concluded by the judgment in the action, if the same is in favor of the plaintiff, as effectively as if the action had been brought against those defendants by name.

D(6)(d) Defending before or after judgment. A defendant against whom service pursuant to this subsection is ordered or that defendant's representatives, on application and sufficient cause shown, at any time before judgment will be allowed to defend the action. A defendant against whom service pursuant to this subsection is ordered or that defendant's representatives may, [upon] on good cause shown and [upon] on any terms that may be proper, be allowed to defend after judgment and within one year after entry of judgment. If the defense is successful, and the judgment or any part thereof has been collected or otherwise enforced, restitution may be ordered by the court, but the title to property sold [upon] on execution issued on that judgment, to a purchaser in good faith, will not be affected thereby.

D(6)(e) Defendant who cannot be served. Within the meaning of this subsection, a defendant cannot be served with summons by any method authorized by subsection D(3) of this rule if service pursuant to subparagraph D(4)(a)(i) of this rule is not applicable, the plaintiff attempted service of summons by all of the methods authorized by subsection D(3) of this rule, and the plaintiff was unable to complete service; or if the plaintiff knew that service by these methods could not be accomplished.

E By whom served; compensation. A summons may be served by any competent person 18 years of age or older who is a resident of the state where service is made or of this state and is neither a party to the action, corporate or otherwise, nor any party's officer, director, employee, or attorney, except as provided in ORS 180.260. However, service pursuant to subparagraph D(2)(d)(i), as well as the mailings specified in paragraphs D(2)(b) and D(2)(c) and part D(3)(a)(iv)(B) of this rule, may be made by an attorney for any party. Compensation to a sheriff or a sheriff's deputy in this state who serves a summons shall be prescribed by statute or rule. If any other person serves the summons, a reasonable fee may be paid for service. This compensation shall be part of disbursements and shall be recovered as provided in Rule 68.

F Return; proof of service.

F(1) Return of summons. The summons shall be promptly returned to the clerk with whom the complaint is filed with proof of service or mailing, or that defendant cannot be found. The summons may be returned by first class mail.

If the defendant is not personally served, the server shall state in the certificate when, where, and with whom true copies of the summons and the complaint were left or describe in detail the manner and circumstances of service. If true copies of the summons and the complaint were mailed, the certificate may be made by

F(4) Failure to make proof; validity of service. If summons has been properly served, failure to make or file a proper proof of service shall not affect the validity of the service.

G Disregard of error; actual notice. Failure to comply with provisions of this rule relating to the form of a summons, issuance of a summons, or who may serve a summons shall not affect the validity of service of that summons or the existence of jurisdiction over the person if the court determines that the defendant received actual notice of the substance and pendency of the action. The court may allow amendment to a summons, affidavit, declaration, or certificate of service of summons. The court shall disregard any error in the content of a summons that does not materially prejudice the substantive rights of the party against whom the summons was issued. 18 E(1) Motion for court assistance. At any time during the taking of a deposition, [upon] on 19 motion and a showing by a party or a deponent that the deposition is being conducted or 20 hindered in bad faith, or in a manner not consistent with these rules, or in such manner as 21 unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or any party, the court may order 22 the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may 23 limit the scope or manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in section C of Rule 36. 24 The motion [shall] must be presented to the court in which the action is pending, except that 25 non-party deponents may present the motion to the court in which the action is pending or the 26 court at the place of examination. PAGE 5 - ORCP 39, Promulgated 12/10/2022 resumed thereafter only on order of the court in which the action is pending. [Upon] On

F Submission to witness; changes; statement.

F(1) Necessity of submission to witness for examination. When the testimony is taken by stenographic means, or is recorded by other than stenographic means as provided in subsection C(4) of this rule, and if any party or the witness so requests at the time the deposition is taken, the recording or transcription [shall] will be submitted to the witness for examination, changes, if any, and statement of correctness. With leave of court such request may be made by a party or witness at any time before trial.

13 F(2) Procedure after examination. Any changes [which] that the witness desires to make 14 [shall] will be entered [upon] on the transcription or stated in a writing to accompany the 15 recording by the party taking the deposition, together with a statement of the reasons given by 16 the witness for making them. Notice of such changes and reasons [shall] must promptly be 17 served [upon] on all parties by the party taking the deposition. The witness [shall] must then 18 state in writing that the transcription or recording is correct subject to the changes, if any, 19 made by the witness, unless the parties waive the statement or the witness is physically unable 20 to make such statement or cannot be found. If the statement is not made by the witness 21 within 30 days, or within a lesser time [upon court order] if so ordered by the court, after the 22 deposition is submitted to the witness, the party taking the deposition [shall] must state on the 23 transcription or in a writing to accompany the recording the fact of waiver, or the physical 24 incapacity or absence of the witness, or the fact of refusal of the witness to make the 25 statement, together with the reasons, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be 26 used as fully as though the statement had been made unless, on a motion to suppress under Rule 41 D, the court finds that the reasons given for the refusal to make the statement require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

F(3) No request for examination. If no examination by the witness is requested, no statement by the witness as to the correctness of the transcription or recording is required.

G Certification; filing; exhibits; copies.

6 G(1) Certification. When a deposition is stenographically taken, the stenographic 7 reporter [shall] must certify, under oath, on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn and 8 that the transcript is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. When a deposition is 9 recorded by other than stenographic means as provided in subsection C(4) of this rule, and 10 thereafter transcribed, the person transcribing it [shall] must certify, under oath, on the 11 transcript that such person heard the witness sworn on the recording and that the transcript is 12 a correct transcription of the recording. When a recording or a non-stenographic deposition or 13 a transcription of such recording or non-stenographic deposition is to be used at any 14 proceeding in the action or is filed with the court, the party taking the deposition, or such 15 party's attorney, [shall] must certify under oath that the recording, either filed or furnished to 16 the person making the transcription, is a true, complete, and accurate recording of the 17 deposition of the witness and that the recording has not been altered.

18 G(2) Filing. If requested by any party, the transcript or the recording of the deposition 19 [shall] must be filed with the court where the action is pending. When a deposition is 20 stenographically taken, the stenographic reporter or, in the case of a deposition taken 21 pursuant to subsection C(4) of this rule, the party taking the deposition [shall] must enclose it 22 in a sealed envelope, directed to the clerk of the court or the justice of the peace before whom 23 the action is pending or such other person as may by writing be agreed [upon] on, and deliver 24 or forward it accordingly by mail or other usual channel of conveyance. If a recording of a 25 deposition has been filed with the court, it may be transcribed [upon] on request of any party 26 under such terms and conditions as the court may direct.

1 G(3) Exhibits. Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of 2 the witness [shall] will, [upon] on the request of a party, be marked for identification and 3 annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party. 4 Whenever the person producing materials desires to retain the originals, such person may 5 substitute copies of the originals, or afford each party an opportunity to make copies thereof. 6 In the event the original materials are retained by the person producing them, they [shall] will 7 be marked for identification and the person producing them [shall] must afford each party the 8 subsequent opportunity to compare any copy with the original. The person producing the 9 materials [shall] will also be required to retain the original materials for subsequent use in any 10 proceeding in the same action. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed 11 to and returned with the deposition to the court, pending final disposition of the case.

12 G(4) Copies. [Upon] On payment of reasonable charges therefor, the stenographic
13 reporter or, in the case of a deposition taken pursuant to subsection C(4) of this rule, the party 14 taking the deposition [shall] must furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the 15 deponent.

H Payment of expenses [upon] on failure to appear.

H(1) Failure of party to attend. If the party giving the notice of the taking of the deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court in which the action is pending may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by such other party and the attorney for such other party in so attending, including reasonable [attorney's] attorney fees.

H(2) Failure of witness to attend. If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena [upon] on the witness and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because the attending party expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by such other party and the attorney for such other party in so attending, including reasonable [attorney's] attorney fees.

at the time and noted [upon] on the record. The court before which the testimony is offered [shall] will rule on any objections before the testimony is offered. Any objections not made at the deposition [shall] will be deemed waived.

2	RULE 55
3	A Generally: form and contents; originating court; who may issue; who may serve;
4	proof of service. Provisions of this section apply to all subpoenas except as expressly indicated.
5	A(1) Form and contents.
6	A(1)(a) General requirements. A subpoena is a writ or order that must:
7	A(1)(a)(i) originate in the court where the action is pending, except as provided in Rule
8	38 C;
9	A(1)(a)(ii) state the name of the court where the action is pending;
10	A(1)(a)(iii) state the title of the action and the case number;
11	A(1)(a)(iv) command the person to whom the subpoena is directed to do one or more of
12	the following things at a specified time and place:
13	A(1)(a)(iv)(A) appear and testify in a deposition, hearing, trial, or administrative or other
14	out-of-court proceeding as provided in section B of this rule;
15	A(1)(a)(iv)(B) produce items for inspection and copying, such as specified books,
16	documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things in the person's possession,
17	custody, or control as provided in section C of this rule, except confidential health information
18	as defined in subsection D(1) of this rule; or 19	A(1)(a)(iv)(C) produce records of confidential health information for inspection and
20	copying as provided in section D of this rule; and
21	A(1)(a)(v) alert the person to whom the subpoena is directed of the entitlement to fees
22	and mileage under paragraph A(6)(b), B(2)(a), B(2)(b), B(2)(c)(ii), B(2)(d), B(3)(a), or B(3)(b) of
23	this rule.
24	A(2) Originating court. A subpoena must issue from the court where the action is 25	pending. If the action arises under Rule 38 C, a subpoena may be issued by the court in the
26	county in which the witness is to be examined.

A(3) Who may issue.

2 A(3)(a) Attorney of record. An attorney of record for a party to the action may issue a subpoena requiring a witness to appear on behalf of that party.

4 A(3)(b) Clerk of court. The clerk of the court in which the action is pending may issue a 5 subpoena to a party on request. Blank subpoenas must be completed by the requesting party 6 before being served. Subpoenas to attend a deposition may be issued by the clerk only if the 7 requesting party has served a notice of deposition as provided in Rule 39 C or Rule 40 A; has 8 served a notice of subpoena for production of books, documents, electronically stored 9 information, or tangible things; or certifies that such a notice will be served 10 contemporaneously with service of the subpoena.

11 A(3)(c) Clerk of court for foreign depositions. A subpoena to appear and testify in a 12 foreign deposition may be issued as specified in Rule 38 C(2) by the clerk of the court in the 13 county in which the witness is to be examined.

A(3)(d) Judge, justice, or other authorized officer.

15 A(3)(d)(i) When there is no clerk of the court, a judge or justice of the court may issue a 16 subpoena.

17 A(3)(d)(ii) A judge, a justice, or an authorized officer presiding over an administrative or 18 out-of-court proceeding may issue a subpoena to appear and testify in that proceeding.

19 A(4) Who may serve. A subpoena may be served by a party, the party's attorney, or any 20 other person who is 18 years of age or older.

21 A(5) Proof of service. Proving service of a subpoena is done in the same way as provided 22 in Rule 7 F(2)(a) for proving service of a summons, except that the server need not disavow 23 being a party in the action; an attorney for a party; or an officer, director, or employee of a 24 party.

A(6) Recipient obligations.

26 A(6)(a) Length of witness attendance. A command in a subpoena to appear and testify requires that the witness remain for as many hours or days as are necessary to conclude the testimony, unless the witness is sooner discharged.

A(6)(b) Witness appearance contingent on fee payment. Unless a witness expressly declines payment of fees and mileage, the witness's obligation to appear is contingent on payment of fees and mileage when the subpoena is served. At the end of each day's attendance, a witness may demand payment of legal witness fees and mileage for the next day. If the fees and mileage are not paid on demand, the witness is not obligated to return.

A(6)(c) Deposition subpoena; place where witness can be required to attend or to produce things.

A(6)(c)(i) Oregon residents. A resident of this state who is not a party to the action is required to attend a deposition or to produce things only in the county where the person resides, is employed, or transacts business in person, or at another convenient place as ordered by the court.

A(6)(c)(ii) Nonresidents. A nonresident of this state who is not a party to the action is required to attend a deposition or to produce things only in the county where the person is served with the subpoena, or at another convenient place as ordered by the court.

A(6)(d) Obedience to subpoena. A witness must obey a subpoena. Disobedience or a refusal to be sworn or to answer as a witness may be punished as contempt by the court or by the judge who issued the subpoena or before whom the action is pending. At a hearing or trial, if a witness who is a party disobeys a subpoena, or refuses to be sworn or to answer as a witness, that party's complaint, answer, or other pleading may be stricken.

A(7) Recipient's option to object, to move to quash, or to move to modify subpoena for production. A person who is not subpoenaed to appear, but who is commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of documents or things, including records of confidential health information as defined in subsection D(1) of this rule, may object, or move to quash or move to modify the subpoena, as follows. A(7)(a) Written objection; timing. A written objection may be served on the party who issued the subpoena before the deadline set for production, but not later than 14 days after service on the objecting person.

A(7)(a)(i) Scope. The written objection may be to all or to only part of the command to produce.

A(7)(a)(ii) Objection suspends obligation to produce. Serving a written objection suspends the time to produce the documents or things sought to be inspected and copied.
However, the party who served the subpoena may move for a court order to compel production at any time. A copy of the motion to compel must be served on the objecting person.

A(7)(b) Motion to quash or to modify. A motion to quash or to modify the command for production must be served and filed with the court no later than the deadline set for production. The court may quash or modify the subpoena if the subpoena is unreasonable and oppressive or may require that the party who served the subpoena pay the reasonable costs of production.

A(8) Scope of discovery. Notwithstanding any other provision, this rule does not expand the scope of discovery beyond that provided in Rule 36 or Rule 44.

B Subpoenas requiring appearance and testimony by individuals, organizations, law enforcement agencies or officers, prisoners, and parties.

B(1) Permissible purposes of subpoena. A subpoena may require appearance in court or out of court, including:

B(1)(a) Civil actions. A subpoena may be issued to require attendance before a court, or at the trial of an issue therein, or [upon] on the taking of a deposition in an action pending therein.

B(1)(b) Foreign depositions. Any foreign deposition under Rule 38 C presided over by any person authorized by Rule 38 C to take witness testimony, or by any officer empowered by

1 | the laws of the United States to take testimony; or

B(1)(c) Administrative and other proceedings. Any administrative or other proceeding presided over by a judge, justice or other officer authorized to administer oaths or to take testimony in any matter under the laws of this state.

B(2) Service of subpoenas requiring the appearance or testimony of nonparty individuals or nonparty organizations; payment of fees. Unless otherwise provided in this rule, a copy of the subpoena must be served sufficiently in advance to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation and travel to the place specified in the subpoena.

B(2)(a) Service on an individual 14 years of age or older. If the witness is 14 years of age or older, the subpoena must be personally delivered to the witness, along with fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law unless the witness expressly declines payment, whether personal attendance is required or not.

B(2)(b) Service on an individual under 14 years of age. If the witness is under 14 years of age, the subpoena must be personally delivered to the witness's parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem, along with fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law unless the witness expressly declines payment, whether personal attendance is required or not.

B(2)(c) Service on individuals waiving personal service. If the witness waives personal service, the subpoena may be mailed to the witness, but mail service is valid only if all of the following circumstances exist:

B(2)(c)(i) Witness agreement. Contemporaneous with the return of service, the party's attorney or attorney's agent certifies that the witness agreed to appear and testify if subpoenaed;

B(2)(c)(ii) Fee arrangements. The party's attorney or attorney's agent made satisfactory arrangements with the witness to ensure the payment of fees and mileage, or the witness expressly declined payment; and

26 B(2)(c)(iii) Signed mail receipt. The subpoena was mailed more than 10 days before the PAGE 5 - ORCP 55, Promulgated 12/10/2022 date to appear and testify in a manner that provided a signed receipt on delivery, and the witness or, if applicable, the witness's parent, guardian, or guardian ad litem, signed the receipt more than 3 days before the date to appear and testify.

B(2)(d) Service of a deposition subpoena on a nonparty organization pursuant to Rule 39 C(6). A subpoena naming a nonparty organization as a deponent must be delivered, along with fees for one day's attendance and mileage, in the same manner as provided for service of summons in Rule 7 D(3)(b)(i), Rule 7 D(3)(c)(i), Rule 7 D(3)(d)(i), Rule 7 D(3)(e), Rule 7 D(3)(f), or Rule 7 D(3)(h).

B(3) Service of a subpoena requiring appearance of a peace officer in a professional capacity.

B(3)(a) Personal service on a peace officer. A subpoena directed to a peace officer in a professional capacity may be served by personal service of a copy, along with fees for one day's attendance and mileage as allowed by law, unless the peace officer expressly declines payment.

B(3)(b) Substitute service on a law enforcement agency. A subpoend directed to a peace officer in a professional capacity may be served by substitute service of a copy, along with fees for one day's attendance and mileage as allowed by law, on an individual designated by the law enforcement agency that employs the peace officer or, if a designated individual is not available, then on the person in charge at least 10 days before the date the peace officer is required to attend, provided that the peace officer is currently employed by the law enforcement agency and is present in this state at the time the agency is served.

B(3)(b)(i) "Law enforcement agency" defined. For purposes of this subsection, a law enforcement agency means the Oregon State Police, a county sheriff's department, a city police department, or a municipal police department.

B(3)(b)(ii) Law enforcement agency obligations.

26 B(3)(b)(ii)(A) Designating representative. All law enforcement agencies must designate one or more individuals to be available during normal business hours to receive service of subpoenas.

B(3)(b)(ii)(B) Ensuring actual notice or reporting otherwise. When a peace officer is subpoenaed by substitute service under paragraph B(3)(b) of this rule, the agency must make a good faith effort to give the peace officer actual notice of the time, date, and location specified in the subpoena for the appearance. If the law enforcement agency is unable to notify the peace officer, then the agency must promptly report this inability to the court. The court may postpone the matter to allow the peace officer to be personally served.

B(4) Service of subpoena requiring the appearance and testimony of prisoner. All of the following are required to secure a prisoner's appearance and testimony:

B(4)(a) Court preauthorization. Leave of the court must be obtained before serving a subpoena on a prisoner, and the court may prescribe terms and conditions when compelling a prisoner's attendance;

B(4)(b) Court determines location. The court may order temporary removal and production of the prisoner to a requested location, or may require that testimony be taken by deposition at, or by remote location testimony from, the place of confinement; and 7 B(4)(c) Whom to serve. The subpoena and court order must be served on the custodian 8 of the prisoner.

B(5) Service of subpoenas requiring the appearance or testimony of individuals who are parties to the case or party organizations. A subpoena directed to a party who has appeared in the case, including an officer, director, or member of a party organization, may be served as provided in Rule 9 B, without any payment of fees and mileage otherwise required by this rule.

C Subpoenas requiring production of documents or things other than confidential health information as defined in subsection D(1) of this rule.

26 C(1) Combining subpoena for production with subpoena to appear and testify. A

PAGE 7 - ORCP 55, Promulgated 12/10/2022

subpoena for production may be joined with a subpoena to appear and testify or may be issued separately.

3 C(2) When mail service allowed. A copy of a subpoena for production that does not 4 contain a command to appear and testify may be served by mail.

5 C(3) Subpoenas to command inspection prior to deposition, hearing, or trial. A copy of 6 a subpoena issued solely to command production or inspection prior to a deposition, hearing, 7 or trial must comply with the following:

8 C(3)(a) Advance notice to parties. The subpoena must be served on all parties to the 9 action who are not in default at least 7 days before service of the subpoena on the person or 10 organization's representative who is commanded to produce and permit inspection, unless the 11 court orders less time;

12 C(3)(b) Time for production. The subpoena must allow at least 14 days for production of 13 the required documents or things, unless the court orders less time; and 14 C(3)(c) Originals or true copies. The subpoena must specify whether originals or true 15 copies will satisfy the subpoena.

D Subpoenas for documents and things containing confidential health information ("CHI").

18 D(1) Application of this section; "confidential health information" defined. This section 19 creates protections for production of CHI, which includes both individually identifiable health 20 information as defined in ORS 192.556 (8) and protected health information as defined in ORS 21 192.556 (11)(a). For purposes of this section, CHI means information collected from a person 22 by a health care provider, health care facility, state health plan, health care clearinghouse, 23 health insurer, employer, or school or university that identifies the person or could be used to 24 identify the person and that includes records that: 25 D(1)(a) relate to the person's physical or mental health or condition; or

26 D(1)(b) relate to the cost or description of any health care services provided to the

1 person.

D(2) Qualified protective orders. A qualified protective order means a court order that prohibits the parties from using or disclosing CHI for any purpose other than the litigation for which the information is produced, and that, at the end of the litigation, requires the return of all CHI to the original custodian, including all copies made, or the destruction of all CHI.

6 D(3) Compliance with state and federal law. A subpoena to command production of CHI 7 must comply with the requirements of this section, as well as with all other restrictions or 8 limitations imposed by state or federal law. If a subpoena does not comply, then the protected
9 CHI may not be disclosed in response to the subpoena until the requesting party has complied 10 with the appropriate law.

11

D(4) Conditions on service of subpoena.

D(4)(a) Qualified protective order; declaration or affidavit; contents. The party serving a subpoena for CHI must serve the custodian or other record keeper with either a qualified protective order or a declaration or affidavit together with supporting documentation that demonstrates:

D(4)(a)(i) Written notice. The party made a good faith attempt to provide the person whose CHI is sought, or the person's attorney, written notice that allowed 14 days after the date of the notice to object;

D(4)(a)(ii) Sufficiency. The written notice included the subpoena and sufficient information about the litigation underlying the subpoena to enable the person or the person's attorney to meaningfully object;

D(4)(a)(iii) Information regarding objections. The party must certify that either no written objection was made within 14 days, or objections made were resolved and the command in the subpoena is consistent with that resolution; and D(4)(a)(iv) Inspection requests. The party must certify that the person or the person's representative was or will be permitted, promptly on request, to inspect and copy any CHI

1 received.

2 D(4)(b) Objections. Within 14 days from the date of a notice requesting CHI, the person whose CHI is being sought, or the person's attorney objecting to the subpoena, must respond in writing to the party issuing the notice, and state the reasons for each objection.

5 D(4)(c) Statement to secure personal attendance and production. The personal 6 attendance of a custodian of records and the production of original CHI is required if the 7 subpoena contains the following statement:

9 This subpoena requires a custodian of confidential health information to personally attend and 10 produce original records. Lesser compliance otherwise allowed by Oregon Rule of Civil 11 Procedure 55 D(8) is insufficient for this subpoena.

12 13

D(5) Mandatory privacy procedures for all records produced.

14 D(5)(a) Enclosure in a sealed inner envelope; labeling. The copy of the records must be 15 separately enclosed in a sealed envelope or wrapper on which the name of the court, case 16 name and number of the action, name of the witness, and date of the subpoena are clearly 17 inscribed.

18 D(5)(b) Enclosure in a sealed outer envelope; properly addressed. The sealed envelope 19 or wrapper must be enclosed in an outer envelope or wrapper and sealed. The outer envelope 20 or wrapper must be addressed as follows:

21 D(5)(b)(i) Court. If the subpoena directs attendance in court, to the clerk of the court, or 22 to a judge;

23 D(5)(b)(ii) Deposition or similar hearing. If the subpoena directs attendance at a 24 deposition or similar hearing, to the officer administering the oath for the deposition at the 25 place designated in the subpoena for the taking of the deposition or at the officer's place of 26 business;

D(5)(b)(iii) Other hearings or miscellaneous proceedings. If the subpoena directs attendance at another hearing or another miscellaneous proceeding, to the officer or body conducting the hearing or proceeding at the officer's or body's official place of business; or

D(5)(b)(iv) If no hearing is scheduled. If no hearing is scheduled, to the attorney or party issuing the subpoena.

D(6) Additional responsibilities of attorney or party receiving delivery of CHI.

D(6)(a) Service of a copy of subpoena on patient and all parties to the litigation. If the subpoena directs delivery of CHI to the attorney or party who issued the subpoena, then a copy of the subpoena must be served on the person whose CHI is sought, and on all other parties to the litigation who are not in default, not less than 14 days prior to service of the subpoena on the custodian or keeper of the records.

D(6)(b) Parties' right to inspect or obtain a copy of the CHI at own expense. Any party to the proceeding may inspect the CHI provided and may request a complete copy of the information. On request, the CHI must be promptly provided by the party who served the subpoena at the expense of the party who requested the copies.

D(7) Inspection of CHI delivered to court or other proceeding. After filing and after giving reasonable notice in writing to all parties who have appeared of the time and place of inspection, the copy of the CHI may be inspected by any party or by the attorney of record of a party in the presence of the custodian of the court files, but otherwise the copy must remain sealed and must be opened only at the time of trial, deposition, or other hearing at the direction of the judge, officer, or body conducting the proceeding. The CHI must be opened in the presence of all parties who have appeared in person or by counsel at the trial, deposition, or hearing. CHI that is not introduced in evidence or required as part of the record must be returned to the custodian who produced it.

D(8) Compliance by delivery only when no personal attendance is required.
 D(8)(a) Mail or delivery by a nonparty, along with declaration. A custodian of CHI who is

1 not a party to the litigation connected to the subpoena, and who is not required to attend and 2 testify, may comply by mailing or otherwise delivering a true and correct copy of all CHI 3 subpoenaed within five days after the subpoena is received, along with a declaration that complies with paragraph D(8)(b) of this rule. 4 5 D(8)(b) Declaration of custodian of records when CHI produced. CHI that is produced 6 when personal attendance of the custodian is not required must be accompanied by a 7 declaration of the custodian that certifies all of the following: 8 D(8)(b)(i) Authority of declarant. The declarant is a duly authorized custodian of the 9 records and has authority to certify records; 10 D(8)(b)(ii) True and complete copy. The copy produced is a true copy of all of the CHI 11 responsive to the subpoena; and 12 D(8)(b)(iii) Proper preparation practices. Preparation of the copy of the CHI being produced was done: 13 14 D(8)(b)(iii)(A) by the declarant, or by qualified personnel acting under the control of the 15 entity subpoenaed or the declarant; 16 D(8)(b)(iii)(B) in the ordinary course of the entity's or the person's business; and 17 D(8)(b)(iii)(C) at or near the time of the act, condition, or event described or referred to 18 in the CHI. 19 D(8)(c) Declaration of custodian of records when not all CHI produced. When the 20 custodian of records produces no CHI, or less information than requested, the custodian of 21 records must specify this in the declaration. The custodian may only send CHI within the 22 custodian's custody. 23 D(8)(d) Multiple declarations allowed when necessary. When more than one person has 24 knowledge of the facts required to be stated in the declaration, more than one declaration may be used. 25 26 D(9) Designation of responsible party when multiple parties subpoena CHI. If more than

1	one party subpoenas a custodian of records to personally attend under paragraph D(4)(c) of
2	this rule, the custodian of records will be deemed to be the witness of the party who first
3	served such a subpoena.
4	D(10) Tender and payment of fees. Nothing in this section requires the tender or 5	payment of more than one witness fee and mileage for one day unless there has been
6	agreement to the contrary.

JURORS

RULE 57

A Challenging compliance with selection procedures.

4 A(1) Motion. Within 7 days after the moving party discovered, or by the exercise of diligence could have discovered, the grounds therefor, and in any event before the jury is 6 sworn to try the case, a party may move to stay the proceedings or for other appropriate relief on the ground of substantial failure to comply with the applicable provisions of ORS chapter 10 in selecting the jury.

9 A(2) Stay of proceedings. [Upon motion filed] A party may file a motion under subsection 10 [(1) of this section] A(1) of this rule containing a sworn statement of facts which, if true, would 11 constitute a substantial failure to comply with the applicable provisions of ORS chapter 10 in 12 selecting the [jury, the] jury. The moving party is entitled to present in support of the motion[:] 13 the testimony of the clerk or court administrator[;], any relevant records and papers not public 14 or otherwise available used by the clerk or court administrator[;], and any other relevant 15 evidence. If the court determines that in selecting the jury there has been a substantial failure 16 to comply with the applicable provisions of ORS chapter 10, the court [shall] must stay the 17 proceedings pending the selection of a jury in conformity with the applicable provisions of ORS 18 chapter 10, or grant other appropriate relief.

19 A(3) Exclusive means of challenge. The procedures prescribed by this section are the 20 exclusive means by which a party in a civil case may challenge a jury on the ground that the 21 jury was not selected in conformity with the applicable provisions of ORS chapter 10.

22 B Jury; how drawn. When the action is called for trial, the clerk [shall] must draw names 23 at random from the names of jurors in attendance [upon the court] until the jury is completed 24 or the names of jurors in attendance are exhausted. If the names of jurors in attendance 25 become exhausted before the jury is complete, the sheriff, under the direction of the court, 26 [shall] must summon from the bystanders, or from the body of the county, so many qualified persons as may be necessary to complete the jury. Whenever the sheriff [shall summon] summons more than one person at a time from the bystanders, or from the body of the county, the sheriff [shall] must return a list of the persons so summoned to the clerk. The clerk [shall] must draw names at random from the list until the jury is completed.

C Examination of jurors. When the full number of jurors has been called, they [shall] will be examined as to their qualifications, first by the court, then by the plaintiff, and then by the defendant. The court [shall] may regulate the examination in such a way as to avoid unnecessary delay.

D Challenges.

10D(1) Challenges for cause; grounds. An individual juror does not have a right to sit on a11particular jury. Jurors have the right to be free from discrimination in jury service as provided12by law. Any juror may be excused for cause, including for a juror's inability to try the issue13impartially as provided herein.14following grounds:

D(1)(a) The want of any qualification prescribed by ORS 10.030 for a person eligible to act as a juror.

17 D(1)(b) The existence of a mental or physical [defect which] impairment that satisfies the 18 court that the challenged person is incapable of performing the [duties] essential functions of 19 a juror in the particular action without prejudice to the substantial rights of the challenging 20 party.

D(1)(c) Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to any party.

22 D(1)(d) Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, physician and patient, master and 23 servant, landlord and tenant, or debtor and creditor to the adverse party; or being a member 24 of the family of, or a partner in business with, or in the employment for wages of, or being an 25 attorney for or a client of the adverse party; or being surety in the action called for trial, or 26 otherwise, for the adverse party. D(1)(e) Having served as a juror on a previous trial in the same action, or in another action between the same parties for the same cause of action, [upon] on substantially the same facts or transaction.

4 D(1)(f) Interest on the part of the juror in the outcome of the action, or the principal 5 question involved therein.

6 D(1)(g) Actual bias on the part of a juror. Actual bias is the existence of a state of mind on 7 the part of a juror that satisfies the court, in the exercise of sound discretion, that the juror 8 cannot try the issue impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party 9 challenging the juror. Actual bias may be in reference to: the action; either party to the action; 10 the sex of the party, the party's attorney, a victim, or a witness; or a racial or ethnic group of 11 which the party, the party's attorney, a victim, or a witness is a member, or is perceived to be a 12 member. A challenge for actual bias may be taken for the cause mentioned in this paragraph, 13 but on the trial of such challenge, although it should appear that the juror challenged has 14 formed or expressed an opinion upon the merits of the cause from what the juror may have 15 heard or read, such opinion shall not of itself be sufficient to sustain the challenge, but the 16 court must be satisfied, from all of the circumstances, that the juror cannot disregard such 17 opinion and try the issue impartially.

18 D(2) Peremptory challenges; number. A peremptory challenge is an objection to a juror 19 for which no reason need be given, but [upon] on which the court [shall] must exclude [such] 20 the juror. Either party is entitled to no more than three peremptory challenges if the jury 21 consists of more than six jurors, and no more than two peremptory challenges if the jury 22 consists of six jurors. Where there are multiple parties plaintiff or defendant in the case, or 23 where cases have been consolidated for trial, the parties plaintiff or defendant must join in the 24 challenge and are limited to the number of peremptory challenges specified in this subsection 25 except the court, in its discretion and in the interest of justice, may allow any of the parties, 26 single or multiple, additional peremptory challenges and permit them to be exercised

1 separately or jointly.

2 D(3) Conduct of peremptory challenges. After the full number of jurors has been passed 3 for cause, peremptory challenges [shall] must be conducted by written ballot or outside of the presence of the jury as follows: the plaintiff may challenge one and then the defendant may 4 5 challenge one, and so alternating until the peremptory challenges [shall be] are exhausted. 6 After each challenge, the panel [shall] must be filled and the additional juror passed for cause 7 before another peremptory challenge [shall] may be exercised, and neither party is required to 8 exercise a peremptory challenge unless the full number of jurors is in the jury box at the time. 9 The refusal to challenge by either party in the order of alternation [shall] will not defeat the 10 adverse party of [such] the adverse party's full number of challenges, [and such] but the refusal 11 by a party to exercise a challenge in proper turn [shall] will conclude that party as to the jurors 12 once accepted by that party and, if that party's right of peremptory challenge is not exhausted, 13 that party's further challenges [shall] will be confined, in that party's proper turn, to [such] any 14 additional jurors as may be called. The court may, for good cause shown, permit a challenge to 15 be taken as to any juror before the jury is completed and sworn, notwithstanding that the juror 16 challenged may have been previously accepted, but nothing in this subsection [shall] will be 17 construed to increase the number of peremptory challenges allowed.

D(4) [Challenge of] Objection to peremptory challenge exercised on the basis of [race, ethnicity, or sex.] protected status.

D(4)(a) A party may not exercise a peremptory challenge on the basis of [race, ethnicity, or sex.] race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or national origin. [Courts shall presume that a peremptory challenge does not violate this paragraph, but the presumption may be rebutted in the manner provided by this section.]

D(4)(b) If a party believes that the adverse party is exercising a peremptory challenge on a basis prohibited under paragraph [(a) of this subsection] D(4)(a) of this rule, that party may object to the exercise of the challenge. [The objection must be made before the court excuses the juror. The objection must be made outside of the presence of the jurors. The party making the objection has the burden of establishing a prima facie case that the adverse party challenged the juror on the basis of race, ethnicity, or sex.] The basis for the objection must be stated outside of the presence of the jury and must identify the protected status that forms the basis of the objection. The court may also raise this objection on its own. The objection must be made before the court excuses the juror, unless new information is discovered that could not have been reasonably known before the jury was empaneled.

8 D(4)(c) [If the court finds that the party making the objection has established a prima 9 facie case that the adverse party challenged a prospective juror on the basis of race, ethnicity, 10 or sex, the burden shifts to the adverse party to show that the peremptory challenge was not 11 exercised on the basis of race, ethnicity, or sex. If the adverse party fails to meet the burden of 12 justification as to the questioned challenge, the presumption that the challenge does not violate 13 paragraph (a) of this subsection is rebutted.] If there is an objection to the exercise of a 14 peremptory challenge under this rule, the party exercising the peremptory challenge must 15 articulate reasons supporting the peremptory challenge that are not discriminatory. The 16 objecting party may then provide argument and evidence that the given reason is 17 discriminatory or pretext for discrimination. An objection to a peremptory challenge must be 18 sustained if the court finds that it is more likely than not that a protected status under 19 paragraph D(4)(a) of this rule was a factor in invoking the peremptory challenge. 20 D(4)(d) [D(4)(d) If the court finds that the adverse party challenged a prospective juror on 21 the basis of race, ethnicity, or sex, the court shall disallow the peremptory challenge.] In making 22 the determination under paragraph D(4)(c) of this rule, the court must consider the totality 23 of the circumstances. The totality of the circumstances may include: 24 D(4)(d)(i) whether the challenged prospective juror was questioned and the nature of 25 those questions; 26 D(4)(d)(ii) the extent to which the nondiscriminatory reason given could arguably be

considered a proxy for a protected status or might be disproportionately associated with a protected status;

D(4)(d)(iii) whether the party challenged the same juror for cause; and D(4)(d)(iv) any other factors, information, or circumstances considered by the court. D(4)(e) The court must explain on the record the reasons for its determination under paragraph D(4)(c) of this rule.

E Oath of jury. As soon as the number of the jury has been completed, an oath or affirmation [shall] must be administered to the jurors, in substance that they and each of them will well and truly try the matter in issue between the plaintiff and defendant and a true verdict give according to the law and evidence as given them on the trial.

F Alternate jurors.

F(1) Definition. Alternate jurors are prospective replacement jurors empanelled at the court's discretion to serve in the event that the number of jurors required under Rule 56 is decreased by illness, incapacitation, or disqualification of one or more jurors selected.

F(2) Decision to allow alternate jurors. The court has discretion over whether alternate jurors [may] will be empanelled. If the court allows, not more than six alternate jurors may be empanelled.

F(3) Peremptory challenges; number. In addition to challenges otherwise allowed by these rules or by any other rule or statute, each party is entitled to[:] one peremptory challenge if one or two alternate jurors are to be empanelled[;], two peremptory challenges if three or four alternate jurors are to be empanelled[;], and three peremptory challenges if five or six alternate jurors are to be empanelled. The court [shall] will have discretion as to when and how additional peremptory challenges may be used and when and how alternate jurors are selected.

F(4) Duties and responsibilities. Alternate jurors [shall] will be drawn in the same manner; [shall] will have the same qualifications; [shall] will be subject to the same

PAGE 6 - ORCP 57, Promulgated 12/10/2022

examination and challenge rules; [shall] will take the same oath; and [shall] will have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the jurors throughout the trial, until the case is submitted for deliberations. An alternate juror who does not replace a juror [shall] may not attend or otherwise participate in deliberations.

F(5) Installation and discharge. Alternate jurors [shall] will be installed to replace any jurors who become unable to perform their duties or are found to be disqualified before the jury begins deliberations. Alternate jurors who do not replace jurors before the beginning of deliberations and who have not been discharged may be installed to replace jurors who become ill or otherwise are unable to complete deliberations. If an alternate juror replaces a juror after deliberations have begun, the jury [shall] must be instructed to begin deliberations anew.

OREGON COUNCIL ON COURT PROCEDURES RECOMMENDATION REGARDING ORCP 57

Background. In 2019, the Oregon Court of Appeals asked the Council on Court Procedures to consider updating Oregon's rules regarding bias in jury selection, which largely fall under Oregon Rule of Civil Procedure 57 D. This rule applies to both civil and criminal cases. ORS 136.230(4).

In the 2019-2021 biennium, the Council on Court Procedures initiated the process of considering amendments to ORCP 57 D. The Council's enabling statute, ORS 1.735(1) makes it clear the it is not within the purview of the Council to make any amendments that would "abridge, enlarge or modify the substantive rights of any litigant." The Council believes that discrimination in jury selection may implicate substantive rights of both litigants and jurors.

The Council is made up of both plaintiffs' and defense lawyers, as well as judges from around the state, the Oregon Supreme Court, and the Oregon Court of Appeals. However, the Council does not include attorneys who practice criminal law, and there are strong implications for criminal litigants, as well as other interest groups, in any amendment to ORCP 57 D. With that in mind, in the 2021-2023 biennium, the Council put together a workgroup comprised of the representatives listed below, including members of the criminal defense bar and other stakeholder groups:

This recommendation relates to "for cause" and "peremptory challenges," which are the two ways a juror may be excluded from participation on a jury panel. Basically, a court may exclude a juror for one of the listed "for cause" reasons in ORCP 57 D(1). Additionally, in any civil or criminal case, each party gets a designated number of "peremptory challenges," allowing them to exclude a juror from participation for any reason. The parties usually meet outside of the jury's presence or pass slips of paper to the judge with a juror's number on the paper, and then that juror is excluded with no further questions asked. The one exception is that, consistent with Supreme Court decisions, under Oregon's current ORCP 57 D(4), a party may not exclude a juror because of race or sex.

If a party believes that the other party has made a "peremptory challenge" for a discriminatory reason, that party may object to the challenge. The current rule has a presumption that challenges are non-discriminatory. That presumption is not consistent with current research or caselaw regarding what are called Batson<sup>1</sup> challenges, and these recommendations recognize that. Current research and caselaw, instead, recognizes that facially neutral reasons may be pretext for discrimination or unconsciously discriminatory. This amendment recognizes that every party making a peremptory challenge should already be examining whether bias may play a part in the desire to exclude the juror, or whether they believe there is a legitimate reason for the exclusion. While this is an important change, its importance largely lies in conforming with current caselaw and research.

Court of Appeals Request. The Oregon Court of Appeals asked the Council on Court Procedures to revisit ORCP 57 D(4) through the case State v. Curry, 298 Or App 377 (2019). In that case, the Court of Appeals reversed a trial court for allowing a party to exclude a juror through a peremptory challenge. The appeals court determined that the trial court had improperly evaluated a Batson objection, referring to an objection that the party was excluding the juror for discriminatory reasons.

Specifically, the Oregon Court of Appeals has asked the Council to consider Washington State's amendment to its rule regarding bias in jury selection, Rule 37. During the Council's consideration, California, Connecticut, and Arizona also amended their rules. The Council and its workgroup considered each of these amendments.

Other Considerations. In addition, the Council considered research offered by the Willamette University College of Law Racial Justice Task Force, research from Connecticut's Jury Selection Task Force, and research from the Pound Civil Justice Institute regarding jury selection and fairness in jury trials.

The research concludes that diversity of representation on jury panels contributes to the fairness of a jury's verdict.<sup>2</sup> It supports that unfairly excluding jurors particularly contributes to disproportionate incarceration based on race.<sup>3</sup> (For example, Black people are incarcerated in Oregon at a rate five times higher than white people in Oregon.<sup>4</sup>) The Oregon legislature has declared race-based discrimination against Black and indigenous people a public health crisis.<sup>5</sup> These amendments are particularly urgent because of this recognized crisis.

Many interest groups requested that the protected characteristics under ORCP 57D(4) be expanded. Oregon's Public Accommodation Law, ORS 659A.403 reflects these additional protections, and these amendments expand ORCP 57D(4) to protect "race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or national origin," reflecting the statutory protections other than marital status and age.

One of the purposes of allowing parties or the court to exclude jurors from service is to prevent litigants from being harmed by a juror's unfair bias. Current research shows, however, that bias on the part of the parties or the court may perpetuate unlawful discrimination through the process of jury selection, even where the person perpetuating the bias may be unaware of the bias.

Because of the dangers of implicit, institutional, and unconscious bias impacting litigants and jurors without any of the parties being aware of the bias, the Council received strong recommendations to eliminate peremptory challenges entirely. The United Kingdom, Canada, and Arizona have eliminated peremptory challenges. Some experienced trial attorneys were reluctant to do this, however, because peremptory challenges allow attorneys to exclude a juror they fear will be unfavorable to a client without embarrassing that juror or confronting that juror regarding potential bias. Peremptory challenges offer some control to the parties that is otherwise not available through the jury trial process. Ultimately, the Council concluded that amendments may be made to ORCP 57 D(4) to promote fairness without eliminating peremptory challenges. The Council strongly recommends that the legislature adopt the proposed amendments in order to promote diversity on jury panels and provide protection against bias.

An additional pressing concern the workgroup and the Council recognized lies in financial and logistical barriers to jury service for marginalized populations, which are more likely to be financially disadvantaged and are also disparately impacted by non-diverse juries. For example, for many jurors, losing a full day of work for a $10 stipend may have a real impact on whether they can pay for essentials like food, housing, and childcare. In other situations, a family may have only one car, preventing a juror logistically from appearing at the courthouse every day. In many instances such as these, jurors who would contribute to a diverse jury panel may not be able to appear for jury duty in the first place, or judges are forced to release jurors because of the financial and logistical barriers, automatically reducing the size and diversity of a jury pool. For these and other reasons, the Council supports proposals from the Oregon Judicial Department to increase pay and financial support for jurors.

Priorities. The Council's priorities in amending this rule were to change the burden shifting issue, which, contrary to caselaw and research, puts the burden on the person making the objection in the current version of the rule. The Council also wanted to recognize that unconscious bias, not just explicit bias, plays a part in the lack of representation on jury panels.

Within those priorities, it became important to create a clear standard for judges in evaluating an objection. Some judges felt that it is difficult to look into the "heart of hearts" of a party making an objection to determine whether unconscious bias may be motivating a challenge. They felt that if the bias is unconscious to the party, it may also not be clear to the judge. The proposed amendments attempt to create a standard that does not require a party or a judge to accuse a challenging party of subjective discrimination, but still works to prevent biases from creating injustice.

As described above, the recommendation also reflects expansion of the protected characteristics to reflect protections for "race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or national origin."

The Council recommends amendment of ORCP 57 as shown in the promulgated rule.

1	TRIAL PROCEDURE
2	RULE 58
3	A Manner of proceedings on trial by the court. Trial by the court shall proceed in the
4	manner prescribed in [ subsections (3) through (6) of section B ] subsection B(3) through
5	subsection B(6) of this rule, unless the court, for good cause stated in the record, otherwise
6	directs.
7	B Manner of proceedings on jury trial. Trial by a jury shall proceed in the following
8	manner unless the court, for good cause stated in the record, otherwise directs:
9	B(1) The jury [ shall ] must be selected and sworn. Prior to voir dire, each party may, with
10	the court's consent, present a short statement of the facts to the entire jury panel.
11	B(2) After the jury is sworn, the court [ shall ] will instruct the jury concerning its duties,
12	its conduct, the order of proceedings, the procedure for submitting written questions to
13	witnesses if permitted, and the legal principles that will govern the proceedings.
14	B(3) The plaintiff [ shall ] may concisely state plaintiff's case and the issues to be tried; the
15	defendant then, in like manner, [ shall ] may state defendant's case based upon any defense or
16	counterclaim or both.
17	B(4) The plaintiff [ shall ] will introduce the evidence on plaintiff's case in chief, and when
18	plaintiff has concluded, the defendant [ shall ] may do likewise.
19	B(5) The parties respectively may introduce rebutting evidence only[,] unless the court,
20	in furtherance of justice, permits them to introduce evidence [ upon ] on the original cause of
21	action, defense, or counterclaim.
22	B(6) When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted by both sides to the
23	jury without argument, the plaintiff [ shall ] may commence and conclude the argument to the
24	jury. The plaintiff may initially waive [ the opening ] argument[,] and, if the defendant then
25	argues the case to the jury, the plaintiff [ shall ] will have the right to reply to the argument of
26	the defendant, but not otherwise.

B(7) Not more than two counsel [shall] may address the jury on behalf of the plaintiff or defendant[; the whole time occupied on behalf of either shall not be limited to less than two hours.] Plaintiff and defendant shall each be afforded a minimum of two hours to address the jury, irrespective of how that time is allocated among that side's counsel.

B(8) After the evidence is concluded, the court [shall] will instruct the jury. The court may instruct the jury before or after the closing arguments.

B(9) With the court's consent, jurors [shall] may be permitted to submit to the court written questions directed to witnesses or to the court. [The court shall afford the parties an opportunity to object to such questions outside the presence of the jury.] The court must afford
the parties an opportunity, outside of the presence of the jury, to object to questions

11 submitted by jurors.

C Separation of jury before submission of cause; admonition. The jurors may be kept together in charge of a proper officer, or may, in the discretion of the court, at any time before the submission of the cause to them, be permitted to separate; in either case, [they] the jurors may be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with any other person, or among themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, or to express any opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them.

18D Proceedings if juror becomes sick. If, after the formation of the jury, and before19verdict, a juror becomes sick, so as to be unable to perform the duty of a juror, the court may20order such juror to be discharged. In that case, unless an alternate juror, seated under Rule 5721F, is available to replace the discharged juror or unless the parties agree to proceed with the22remaining jurors, a new juror may be sworn, and the trial may begin anew; or the jury may be23discharged, and a new jury then or afterwards formed.

E Failure to appear for trial. When a party who has filed an appearance fails to appear for trial, the court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial and judgment without further notice to the non-appearing party.

1	F Testimony by Remote Means
2	F(1) Subject to court approval, the parties may stipulate that testimony be taken by
3	remote means. The oath or affirmation may be administered to the witness either in the 4	presence of the person administering the oath, or by remote means, at the discretion of the 5	court.
6	F(2) "Remote means" is defined as any form of real-time electronic communication
7	that permits all participants to hear and speak with each other simultaneously.
8	F(3) Testimony by remote means must be recorded using the court's official recording
9	system, if suitable equipment is available; otherwise, such testimony must be recorded at the 10	expense of and by the party requesting the testimony. Any alternative method and manner
11	of recording is subject to the approval of the court.
12	F(4) A request for testimony by remote means must be made within the time allowed
